

The logo for the movie 'Nineteen Eighty Five' is centered in the upper half of the cover. It features the title in a stylized, metallic, three-dimensional font. The letters are silver with a blue-to-white gradient and a purple outline. The text is arranged in three lines: 'NINETEEN' on top, 'EIGHTY' in the middle, and 'FIVE' at the bottom. The entire logo is set against a dark background with a light blue grid pattern that recedes into the distance, creating a sense of depth. A bright light flare is visible on the left side of the 'N' in 'NINETEEN'.

DESTINIES

How many thoughts have run through our heads
Concerning success, happiness, and dreads?
We can only estimate the times
Parents, friends, and ourselves have changed our minds.

What dietary plan will shape our lives?
How much should we work to achieve?
In careers, in faith and in love let God guide us,
Destinies will be what we receive.

— Author unknown —

My Dear Students,

"Destinies" is a very fine theme for your 1985 Yearbook.

In your young lives, as teenagers, there is so much to live for. Each of you, we might say, is destined to be someone special, to accomplish certain things during your life. However, whatever you become, whatever you achieve, cannot interfere with God's plan for you - your destiny to live in happiness and peace with Him for all eternity.

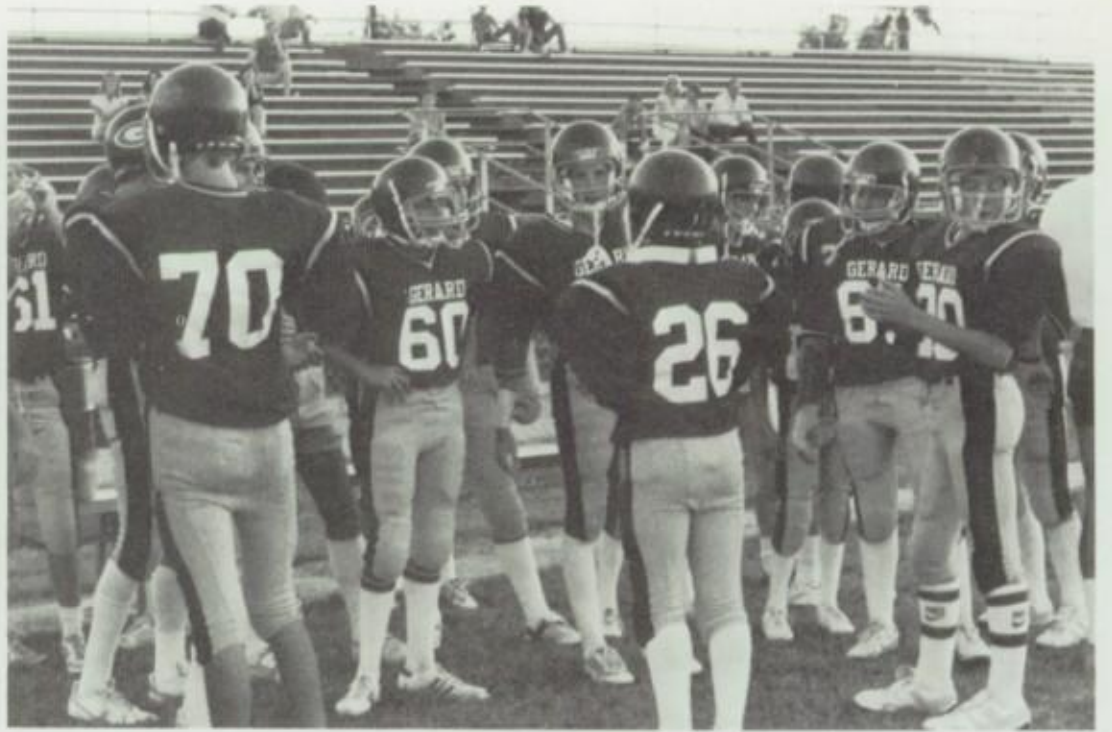

Be open and receptive to the Lord's generous gifts of grace, so that your ultimate destiny will be realized.

Be not afraid. May God's peace be with you!

Faithfully yours in Christ,

+ Thomas J. O'Brien

INITIATION FOR FROSH

A table top serenade

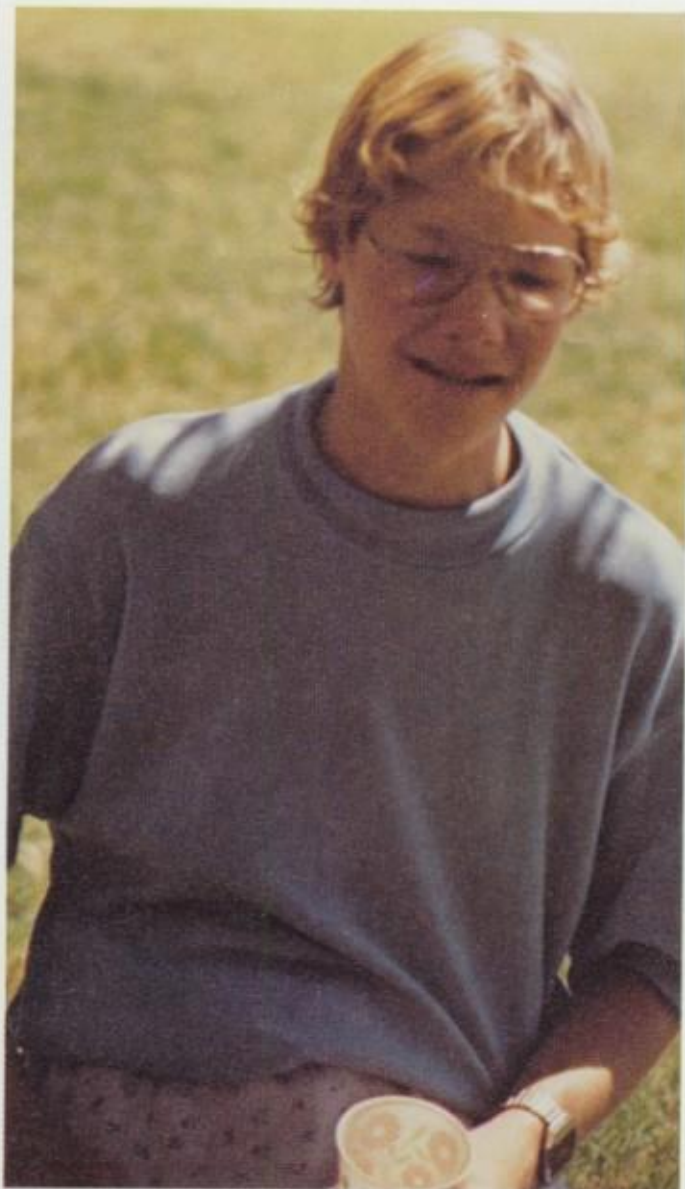

I never liked the taste of grass

Karen gets a ride

Initiation is the time of the year when the Seniors give a little of the attention that they received as Freshmen back to the new lower classmen . . . it's all in good fun and the day marks the official initiation of the Freshmen into the Gerard family

I wish this day would never end?!

WELCOME TO GERARD

Laura loves HER Freshmen!

You want me to do WHAT?!?!

A Lifetime of EXPERIENCES

Delegates: Carla Cotton, Mary Jean Robinson, Ginny McGuire, Patty DeJulia, Lura Hugen.

Boy's State Delegate: Ron Ruelas, Girl's State Delegate: Suzy Gilb.

Anytown delegates cannot explain what Anytown was — it was something everyone has to experience to understand. During the summer, seven lucky delegates got to go to Anytown, USA. The first group of delegates: Ginny McGuire, Lura Haugen, and Tammy Krystek, got to go to this camp during the week of June 3-9. The second group of delegates: Scott Green, Mary Jean Robinson, Carla Cotton, and Patty DeJulia got to go the week of June 9-15. All delegates were very pleased with the camp.

The camp was based mainly on human relations. It made you appreciate people for who they are inside, not just their physical qualities. Many friends were made during the week and these friends will always be close friends of the delegates.

Each day had many activities to keep everyone busy. There was a cultural night where they divided into their ethnic groups and performed skits which dealt with the prejudices that each ethnic group feels. It was a very emotional night for everyone. There was also a talent show night that was full of fun. The last night was the night which none of the delegates looked forward to. There was a candle light vigil, where any delegate who wished to share his or her experiences during the week held a candle and shared it with everyone. There were many tears shed during the long hour, but it brought everyone just that much closer.

This year's representatives for Boys and Girls State were Ron Ruelas and Suzy Gilb. The conventions were not held at the same location. Boy's State, which had about 375 boys, held its convention at NAU. The site of the Girl's State was at the University of Arizona.

During the convention, each delegate was expected to run for at least one office. The "State" is made up of twelve cities and in these twelve cities there are many office positions to run for.

The convention was not all work and no play. The delegates had a good time in the week they spent. They made many good friends, and learned to work with people and to compromise.

Any Junior boy or girl who is interested in Boys or Girls State should not hesitate — it's worth it.

Gerard's Annual "Favorite" Activity

Even Kay got into the spirit of the cheese drive!

Miss Kay ponders over how much cheese she can eat.

Every year, Gerard has a strange ritual that it goes through, commonly referred to as the Cheese Drive. Every red-blooded American at Gerard went out and sold their quota of cheese in order to benefit whatever it was that we were trying to accomplish this year. The sheer joy of going door to door drove each of us on until we made our quota and the satisfaction of success (and a free day off) made all of us proud to be a part of it all ... ! ... ?

TIME TO MOVE ON

As everything must come to an end so does Dr. Brandt's time at Gerard. After ten years of pure dedication we will be saying good bye to a truly wonderful man and principal. This departure isn't easy for Dr. Brandt or the students who have grown to be a family in the past ten years.

Dr. Brandt has put a lot of time into making Gerard Catholic High School the best place to be and it is evident that he has been successful in performing this task. There will be many things which the school will remember Dr. Brandt for, especially his famous mottos. Even though students laugh when they hear these mottos they know what is meant by "we're not all chocolate chip cookies" and that "we need to get over the fence."

Dr. Brandt has always talked about having a good relationship with the Lord. Dr. Brandt is a very Christian person and he lets people know that having a good relationship with the Lord will always make things look brighter.

The students at Gerard are going to really miss Dr. Brandt but the memories that he leaves will always be there to help them make it through all the good and bad times. To show our thanks, the yearbook staff has taken this opportunity to dedicate the 1985 yearbook to Dr. Robert G. Brandt. We hope you will be able to look back on this yearbook with great memories of Gerard. We wish you the best of luck and hope you get all you want out of life because you deserve it.

God Bless You Dr. Brandt we love you!

Dr. Brandt being his usual friendly self.

ANOTHER YEAR, ANOTHER CIGAR

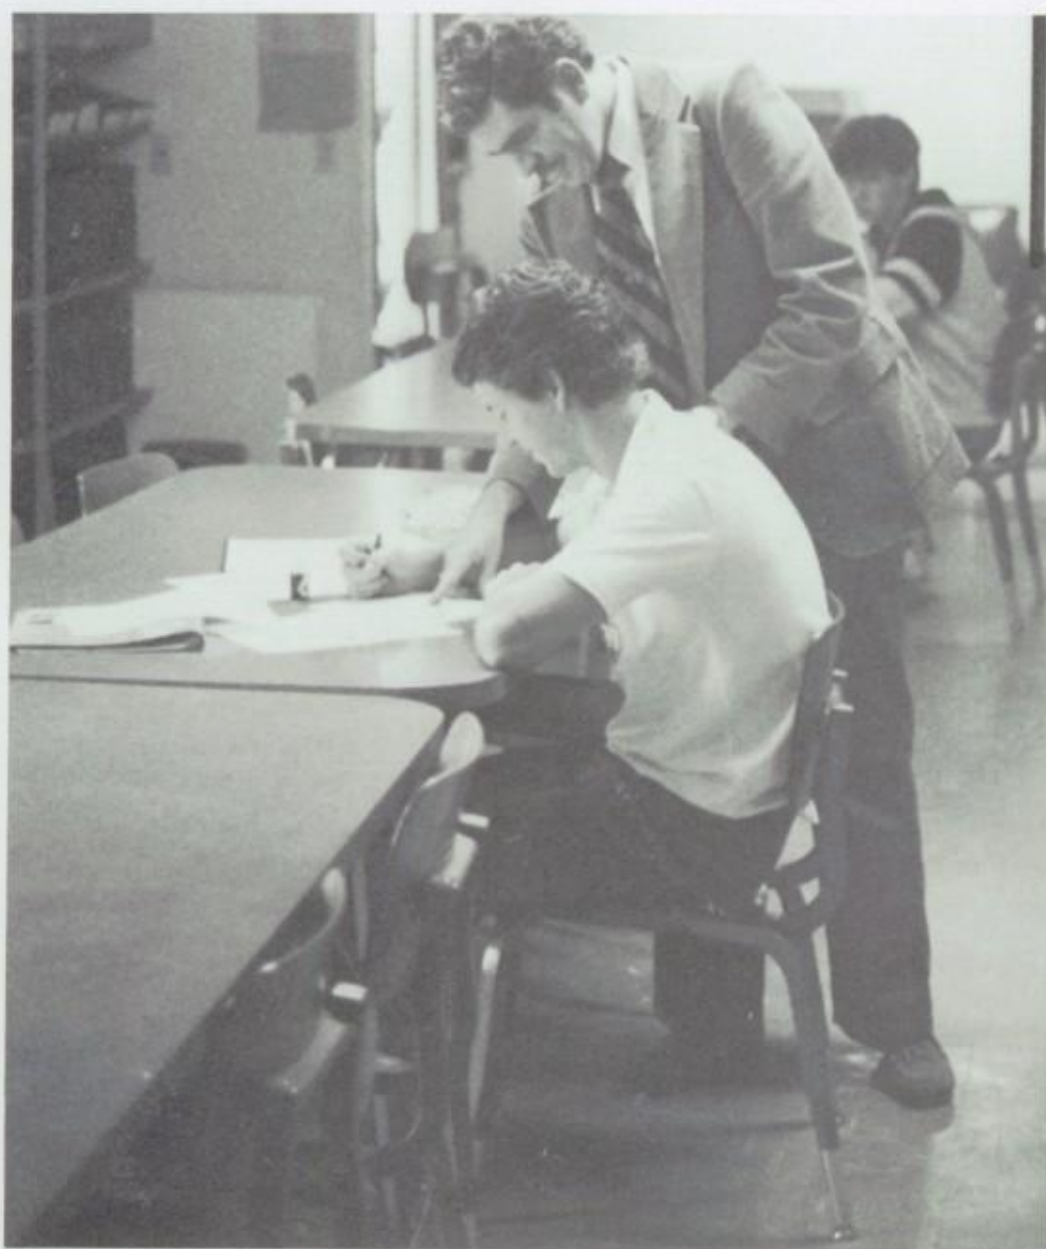

Would you like a week or two of detention?

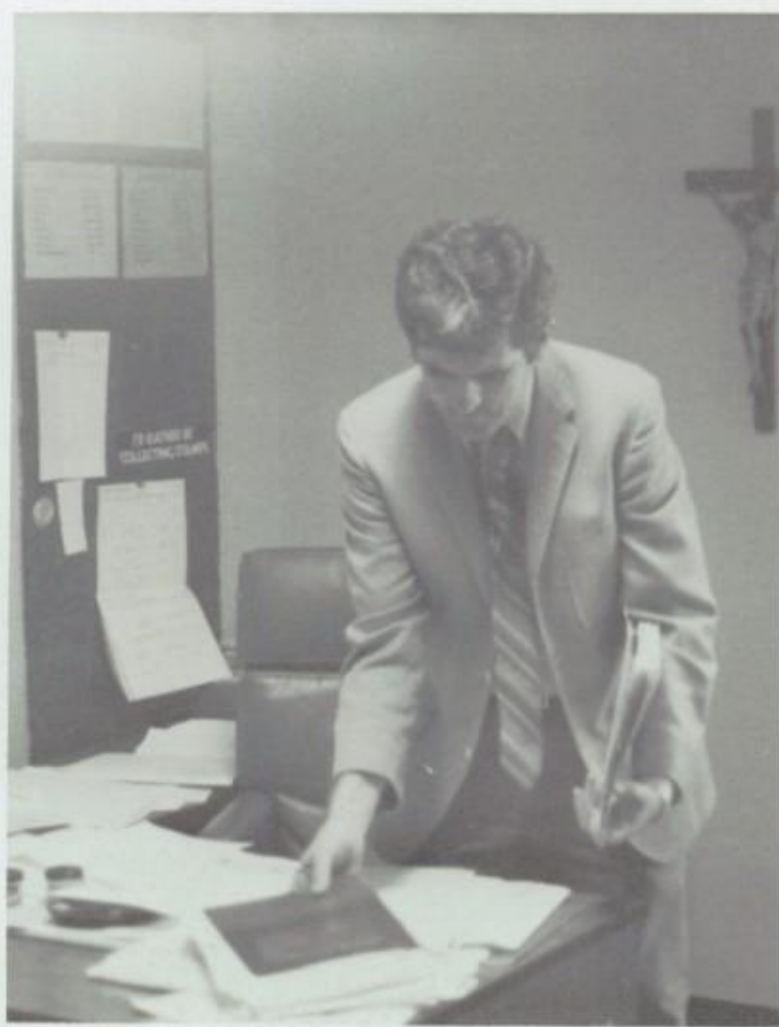

Dr. Sheridan has been a very dedicated person as Vice Principal at Gerard. With the departure of Dr. Brandt, Dr. Sheridan will have to get used to working with another partner but that should be no problem for him because of his great personality. Dr. Sheridan, although he is the disciplinarian, is a very easy person to get along with. Many students enjoy talking to and being with Dr. Sheridan because of his witty humor.

Not only is Dr. Sheridan busy being Vice Principal and the disciplinarian but he also teaches sophomore AZ History and Geography. Now if that isn't dedication!

Thank you Dr. Sheridan for helping to make this year another successful year.

Dr. Sheridan teaching one of his students.

Such a busy man!

Homecoming Week

How Cute!

Now that's tacky.

Homecoming Nominees

That's right — I'm cool.

Former King and Queen with the new King and Queen.

The theme of this year's Homecoming was "Safari." A lot of work was put into preparing for homecoming week. Many committees were formed and each of these committees worked hard on planning their event.

The week began on October 31st with Halloween. Students were to come as their favorite fictional character. This day was followed by Tacky Tourist day, and boy were people tacky! November 2nd wound up the theme day. There was a pep assembly where class competition was held. The most spirited class was the Sophomore Class. The Seniors and Sophomores won the Homecoming float competition. The week was topped off with a dance after the football game.

"I gotta catch up to him."

"She'll never catch me."

"I don't believe you just took that."

A Mural Is Born

Gerard was involved in a major art project last December. The Arizona Foundation of the Arts provided us with a grant to hire Zarco Guerrero, an artist in residence. He helped us paint a mural with many religious symbols in an abstract form in the upstairs chapel.

Miss Nask, the coordinator of this project, invited some of her Advanced Art, along with a few Basic Art students, to participate in the creation of this mural with Zarco. The first few days were spent inventing a theme. Through the process of elimination, the main ideas were collected to create a painting which represented them.

The primary reason for doing this mural in our chapel is to spiritually motivate and inspire students while they attend Mass. The scene symbolizes the future. The central figure is Christ being resurrected from explosion. Christ is amidst a galaxy of planets and stars. The colors of the horizon are seen in the background representing the hope for our future.

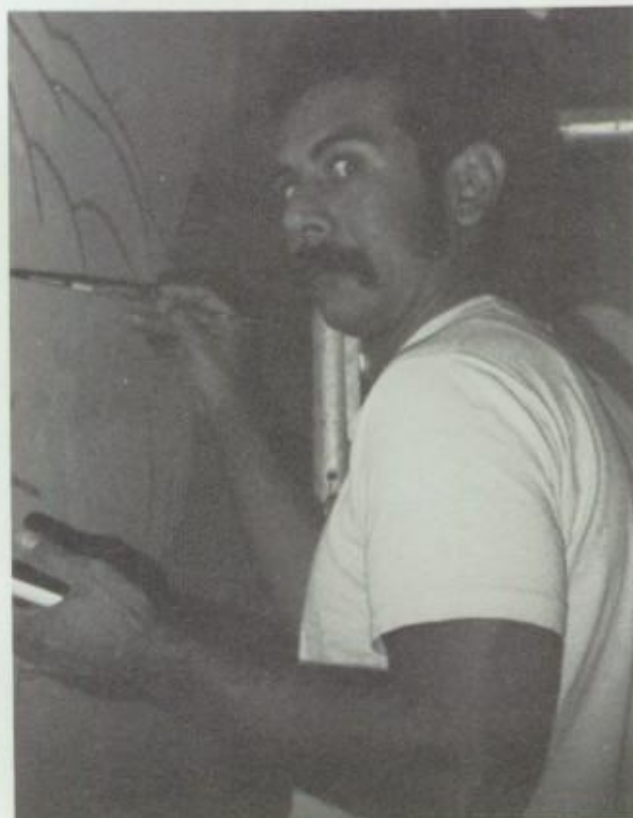

The process of painting the mural was video taped so that the students can remember the creation of such a cultural project. The students of Gerard should achieve a sense of uniqueness from this project, since we are the only school in Phoenix so far to participate in a cultural project of this type.

The beginning stages.

THAT'S ENTERTAINMENT!

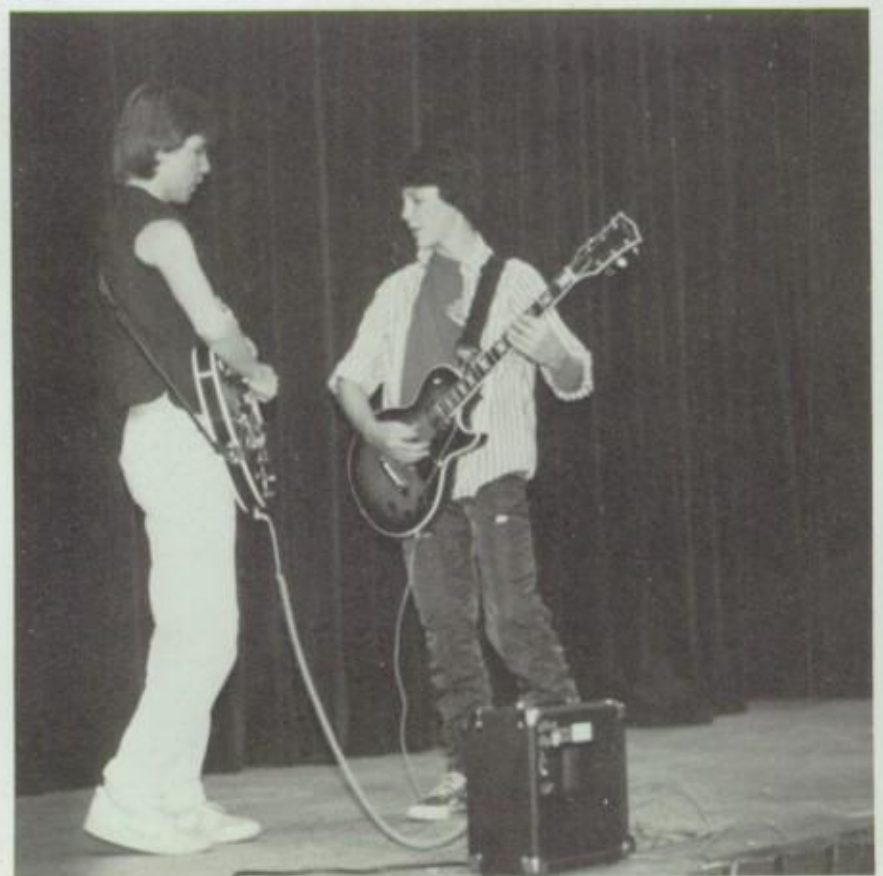

Well, would you look at that mouse.

We're going to dance the night away.

Pssst! Mike, I forgot the chords!

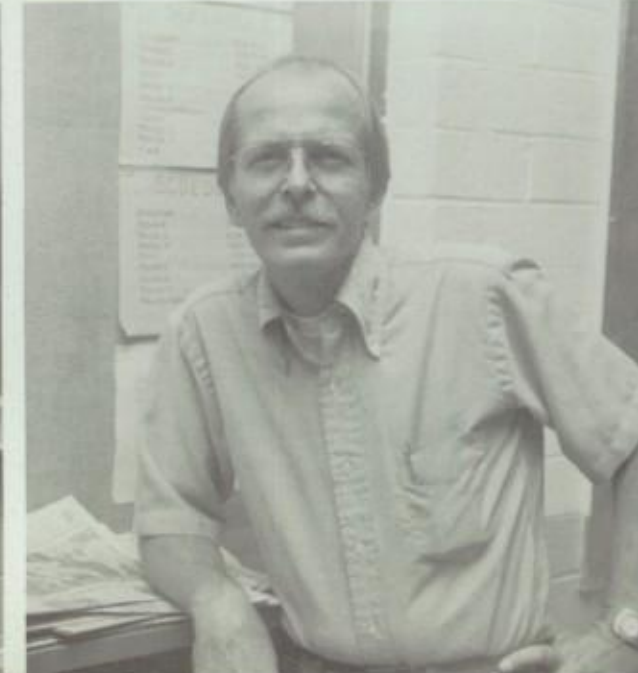

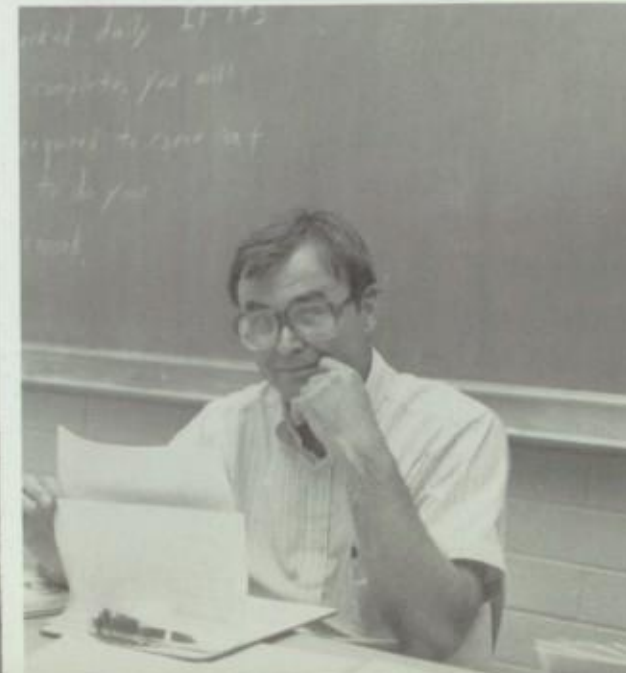

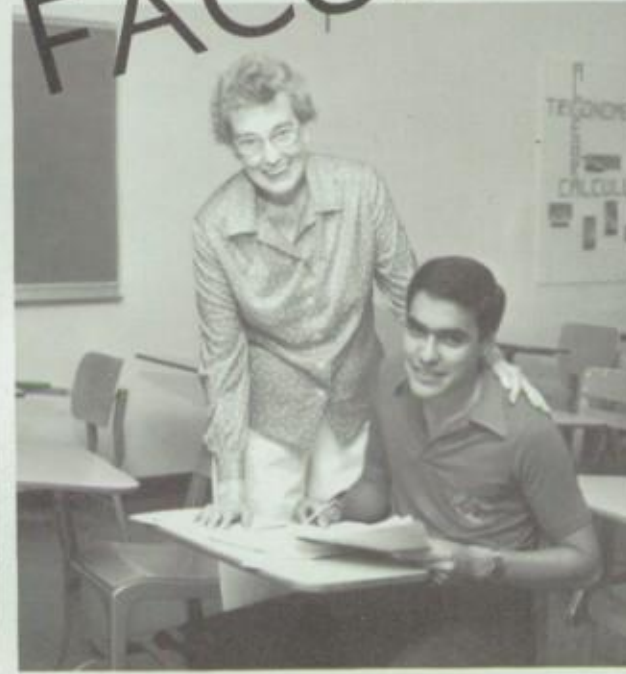

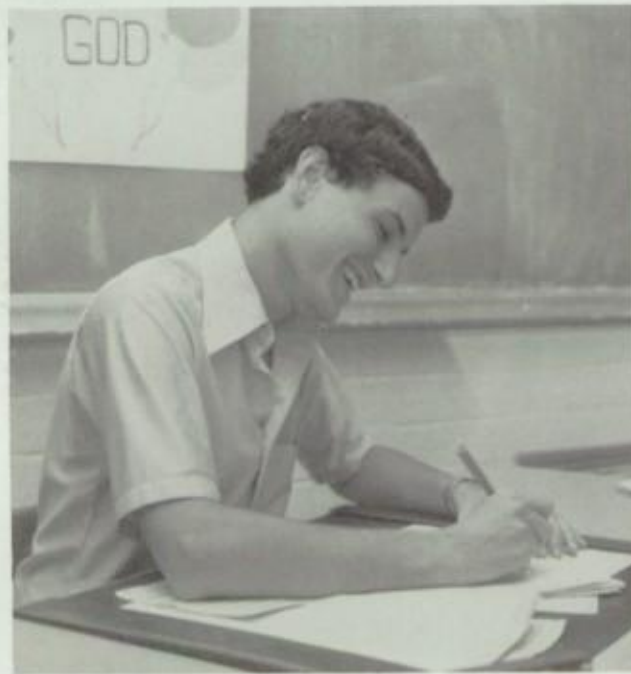

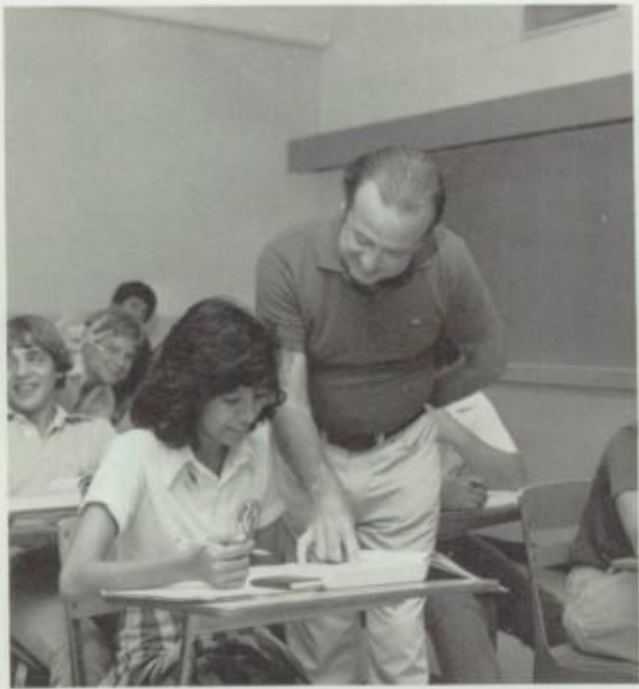

Fine Arts

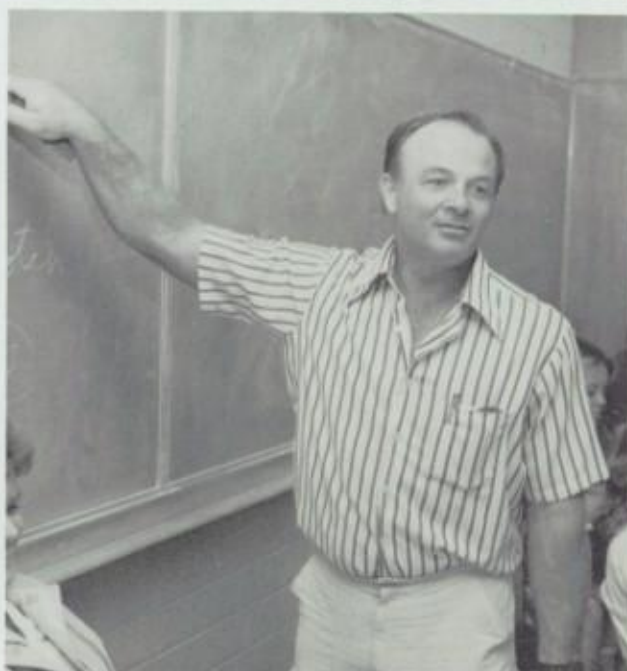

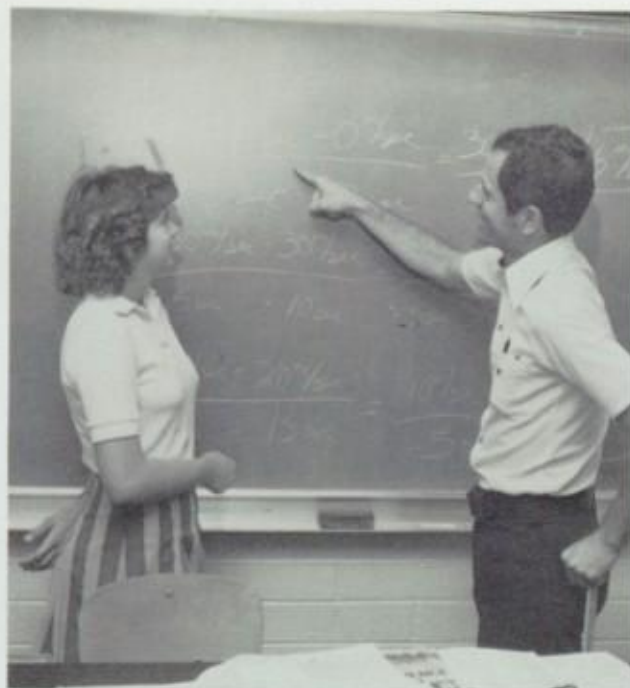

This year's science fair offered many new attractions ranging from basic projects to complex experiments, dance routines to entertain the young and old. All of the science classes contributed a project of some sort. Some of the projects had to do with mice, computers, volcanoes, electronics, and various other topics.

The Art department also contributed their share of work. Paintings, sketches, and collages were displayed on the walls and hung from display boards. Poems were also shared with the parents and students.

To keep the entertainment going, dances were performed by some of the students who had dancing ability. And music was provided by other students as well. All and all, the Science Fair was a night to remember.

This years Varsity football team consisted of a group of spirited and dedicated individuals. As there was no Junior-Varsity team this year, the team members ranged in age from Sophomores to Seniors. The Redcoats had a very tough season, but they never lost that Redcoat Pride. A large number of the players are graduating Seniors, which means the team next year will be young. But with the experience that the younger members acquired this year, along with their strong Redcoat spirit, we can look forward to next year's team with hope and pride.

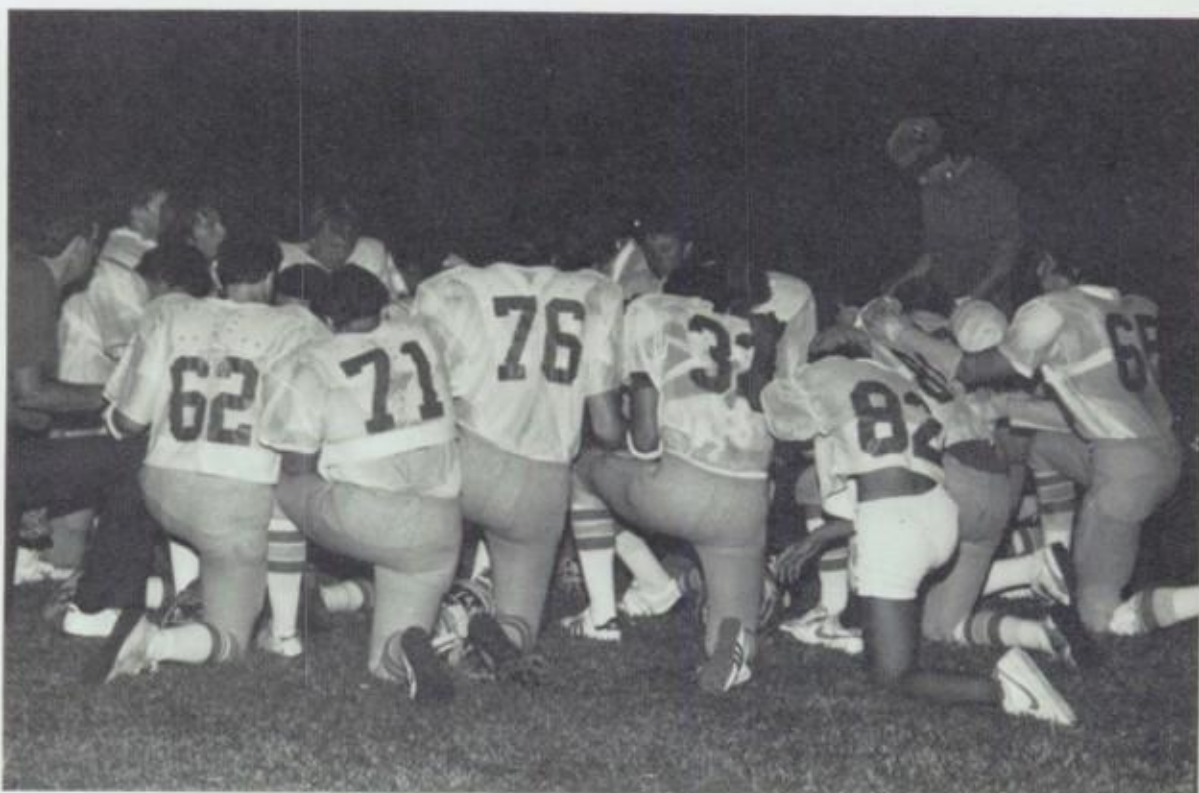

Mr. J. Relph, who coached Varsity Football from 1970-1974 with a record 32 wins and 7 losses, became the new head coach this year. When asked how he felt about the team this year he replied:

"I would like to say three things. One, we really had very good personnel. Two, four of the five teams that we lost to went into the state playoffs, and three; in the clutch situations we lacked confidence and panicked."

Mr. Relph hopes to take the team up North for a week this summer to practice and gain more team unity. Best of luck next year Mr. Relph and fellow Redcoats.

This year was one of triumph for the girls varsity volleyball team. Besides being state champs, they were first in their division. The main reason for their success was their ability to work as a team. They all knew that if they won they won as a team not just because of one or a few people. Coach Burcham was also a factor to their winning season. The team worked hard from the beginning of the season, which began in August, and did not quit until the very last game which as we all know was the STATE CHAMPIONSHIP. Congratulations girls on a job well done.

Sock it to em, Paula!

This year's girls J.V. volleyball team was so successful that they attained 2nd place in their division. Much of their success was due to the experience of Mrs. Dreffs, as their coach. They finished off the season with 11 wins and 3 losses. Gilbert and Wickenburg were the only competitors capable of defeating the team. The J.V. captains were Dore Griffin and Leah Thalheimer. If their skill continues to build at this rate, there will be a pretty victorious varsity team within the next year or two. This year there was also a freshmen volleyball team. They were not quite as successful as the J.V. team, but their team unity was fantastic.

Will she make it?

Now the game will begin.

RED & GRAY ALL THE WAY

The girls warm up before the big game.

This years Varsity girls basketball team did a great job in showing the true spirit of Gerard Catholic. The team had a lot of talent which helped them go as far as they did. The team was not that big, only two seniors and the rest were juniors. The teams overall record was 8 wins and 8 losses. Members on the team were: Natalie King, Julie Falconer, Maribeth Detrick, Cappy Holland, Michele Werton, Laura Allison, Kay Howard, Carla Cotton, Adelle Wieck and Erin Doell. Some players received special awards such as: 1st team Maribeth Detrick, 2nd team Natalie King and Cappy Holland and honorable mention Michele Werton and Julie Falconer.

It wouldn't be a real game without the jumpball.

Will this game ever end?

Michele puts it up for two!

Go get her, Julie!

Two more for Michele.

Aren't they awesome?

Is that a new dance, girls?

The 1984-1985 Redcoat Basketball team gave their fans some exciting basketball to watch this year. Highlights of the season included a 2nd place finish at the Page Christmas Tournament and an exciting overtime victory against eventual state champion Gilbert. Receiving special recognition were Dominic Maietta, All Division (1st team), 1st Team All Tourney (Page), and All State (2nd Team); Jim Heaney, All Central Division and All Tourney (Page); and Mike Phelan, All Central Division.

Mike Phelan shoots for two.

Way to go Joe!

Hey, save the high fives until after the game!

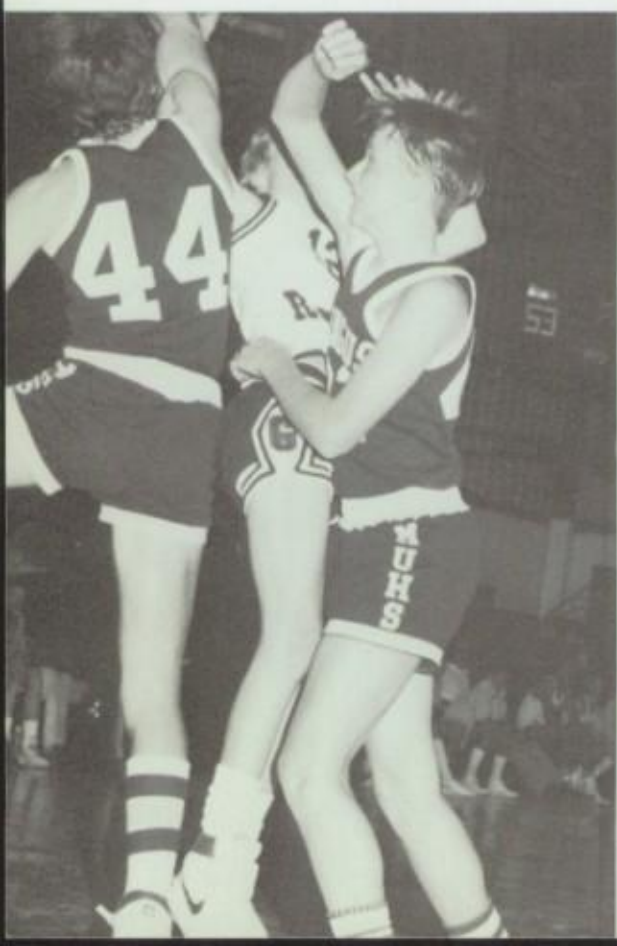

Getting physical is the name of the game.

Grand Slam? No problem!

This year the Gerard Softball Team placed 3rd in their division. They went to divisionals but failed to qualify for the State Championships. The girls worked very hard under the guidance of a new coaching staff. The coaches were very dedicated and worked hard. They are: Lead coach Jaime Alvarez, Asst. Carol Reep, and John Soisson.

Having a new coaching staff was hard to begin with but as we got to know each other better it became revelant to our team (as well as to the other teams in the divisions) that never before was a coaching staff and a team more meant for each other — Maureen Balfre.

We had a strong team this year. We started off slow but, by the end of the season, a lot of teams and coaches knew the meaning of W.S.K.A. — Stephanie Sanchez.

Six members made all-conference teams. They are:

Stephanie Sanchez — 1st team 2nd base.

Sheila Healy — 1st team 1st base.

Julie Falconer — 2nd team 3rd base.

Carla Cotton — 2nd team pitcher.

Cappy Holland — 2nd team shortstop.

Theresa Bowen — 2nd team Utility.

The captains were: Maureen Balfre, Julie Falconer and Stephanie Sanchez.

... One More Time

The year was great — Scott Watson
We all went out there as individuals but it took us working as a team to get as far as we did — Joe Knapp

Despite the tremendous team effort there were some that excelled as individuals. Joe Knapp,
Rob Bowen and Dennis Kmetko were All Conference and this year
Joe Knapp made All State . . . Congratulations Guys!!

Put me in Coach, I'm ready to play . . . today!

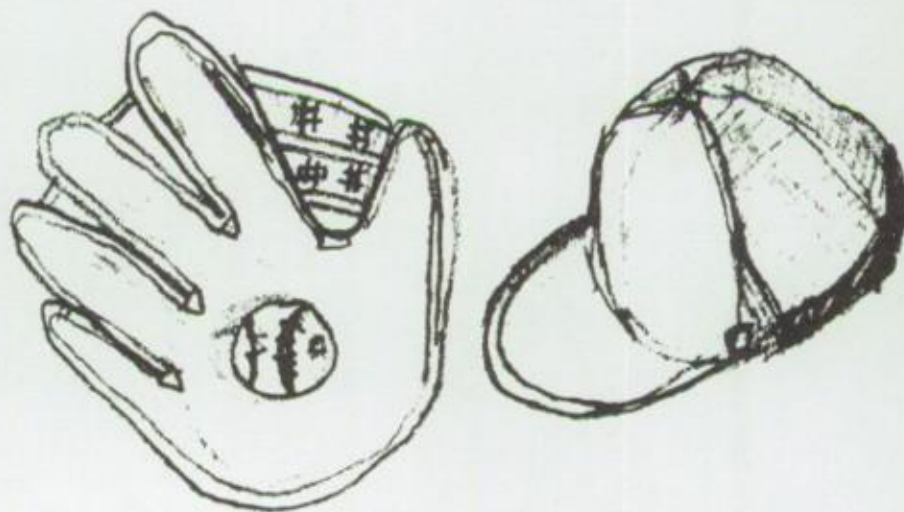

Promise for the Future

The main purpose of freshmen boys baseball is to build fundamental skills and to prepare the players to succeed in Junior Varsity and Varsity baseball. The key to a future in baseball in high school is to learn to play as a team and work well at leading as well as following orders. Mr. Louis Mallet was the coach and Mr. Ed Malone assisted him.

Movin' On Up!

Teamwork is the key to every successful team. The Junior Varsity baseball team displayed just that throughout the entire season. There was also a lot of talent on the team. This year there were several Freshmen on the team who displayed a lot of promise and added to the quality of the team. This group shows a lot of promise for a future in Varsity baseball and looks forward to next year's success.

A RUN FOR GLORY

The 1985 Redcoat track and field team made a fine showing this season. In what could be considered a "rebuilding" year, the runnin' Redcoats represented themselves and their school in an excellent manner.

This years dedicated, hard working, and cohesive team continually improved their personal times and distances and had a good time doing it. The teams spirit and unity showed through in every meet as team members cheered on all participants.

State meet qualifiers were Natalie King in the 100 and 200 meter dashes, Bernie Dalton, Mike Dirks, Matt Dirks, Edgar Hauser in the 4x100 meter relay and Dave Bartoletti, Andy McComber, Matt Dirks and Edgar Hauser in the 4x100 relay. Class records were set by Dave Bartoletti 800 meter and Matt Dirks 400 meter.

Thank you alumni helpers: Jamie Sandoval '84, Joe Gaudio '83, Helena Wise '83, Sheila Saunders '84 and Tina Gamboa.

Diane Briehl movin' out.

Dave Bartoletti and Andy McComber finishing strong.

GOLF

Team captain Tony Frakes.

This year's golf team has put in a lot of effort to make our school proud. They had a good season winning five matches in ten, and they placed second in State Divisionals. Tony Frakes received low score.

The Invincible Jeff Horvath.

"Move over Arnold Palmer!"

Joe Navarro hits another one!

Steve and his caddy Bill.

Varsity Cheer Show Spirit

The Varsity Line was very spirited and kept the crowds going. The line had potential and it showed. They worked hard all year to prove they had real Redcoat spirit, pride, and dignity. The line was made up of seven girls which were, Captain Lura Haugen, Kay Shepp, Ginny McGuire, Lisa Fuhrman, Kris Sanders, Kirsten Wilhelm, and Kim Getz. The two mascots were Angela Aslanian, and Rozina Kizer. Their hard working moderator is Mrs. Virginia Dertina, assisted by Stacy Corwin.

J.V. Are Alive

The Junior Varsity Line showed how they had spirit and pride. The line consisted of seven girls who knew how to get the fans involved. They were Lori Kalos, Jennifer Garcia, Kris Surges, Julie McComber, Martie Gleba, Danielle Sharp, and Captain Christy Yourk.

Freshmen Come Together

The Freshmen line worked hard and were proud to be Redcoats. They had a good year and enjoyed cheering. These girls were Denise Romero, Kim Kapolovic, Liz Ells, Chrissy Cryan, Carrie Sanders, and Captain Dina Ponzeline.

This year's Student Council had a great group of people. The year was well organized with activities going as planned.

There was a new procedure brought into student council this year. This procedure was Parliamentary Procedure. If students or faculty members felt that officers were not meeting their obligations then these individuals would stand in front of their own class members to see if they would be allowed a second chance. All in all it worked out well.

The enigma of the total concept of yearbook has once again escaped the understanding of the student body. Not many people realize just how much work and headache goes into a yearbook. The few people that stuck with it through the year are some of the most devoted people there are . . . or else they're crazy . . . Despite the problems that have occurred while making the yearbook, the results are always great. The memories of each passing year at Gerard are credited to this elite staff and if you disagree, join yearbook and find out what it's all about!

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Edible congratulations to members!

The Gerard chapter of the National Honor Society had a productive year under the direction of Mrs. Jane McKallor. The membership adopted families for Christmas and Thanksgiving, and baked cookies for the Blood Drive.

NHS members must have a 3.65 grade point average and must meet the requirements of character, leadership, service and scholarship. The officers this year were: Paula Vaananen, president; Suzy Gilb, vice president; Annie Glenn, treasurer. Other members were: Seniors Susan Bayer, Mark Curran, Brian Durkin; Juniors Sara Castro-Marin, Lenore Reznick, Mary Jean Robinson, Kris Sanders, Michelle Werton, Jill Wilhelm; Sophomores Charles Bayer, Laura Holub, Vince Sheridan.

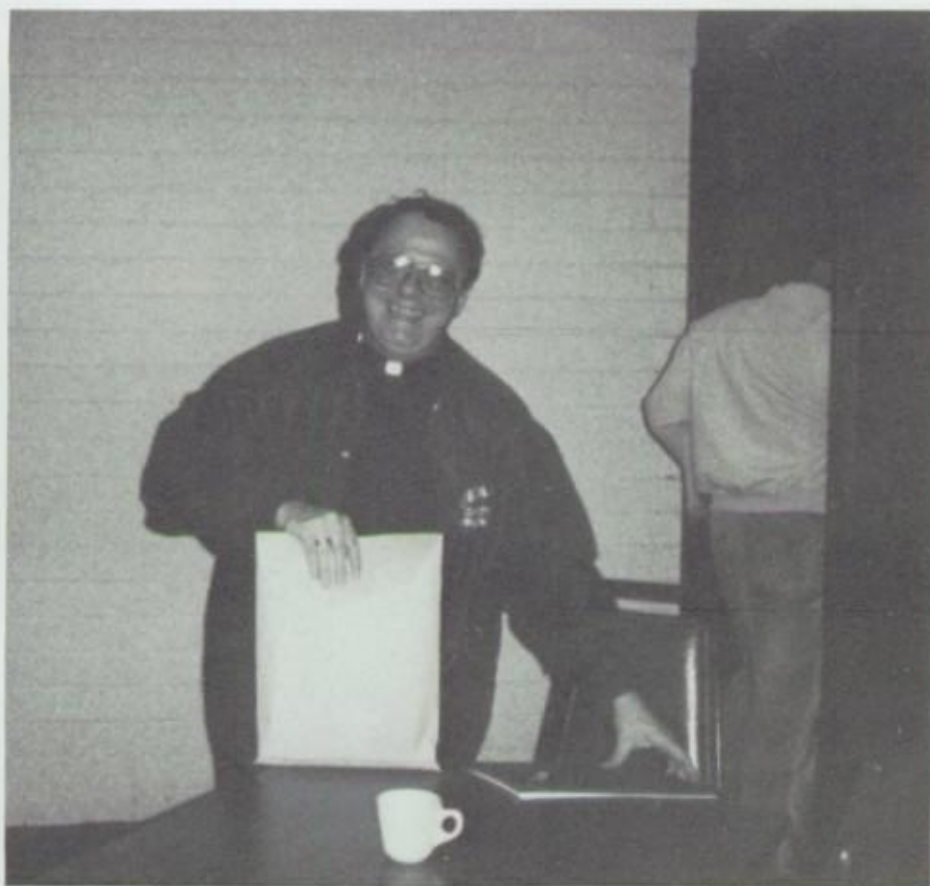

Proud parents!

Members attending the installation ceremony.

CAMPUS MINISTRY

In the past year, Campus Ministry has put together a real positive program. It has brought together the Spiritual and Communal aspects here at Gerard.

Among the strengths has been the advantage of a priest on campus as well as peer ministers giving all an opportunity to discuss "problems." The ministry of students as peer ministers had enhanced the program.

Another aspect of the program has been the improved liturgical celebrations. The campus ministry program has also been a help with the Confirmation program. Over all, the Ministry has been a really great contribution to the students here at Gerard.

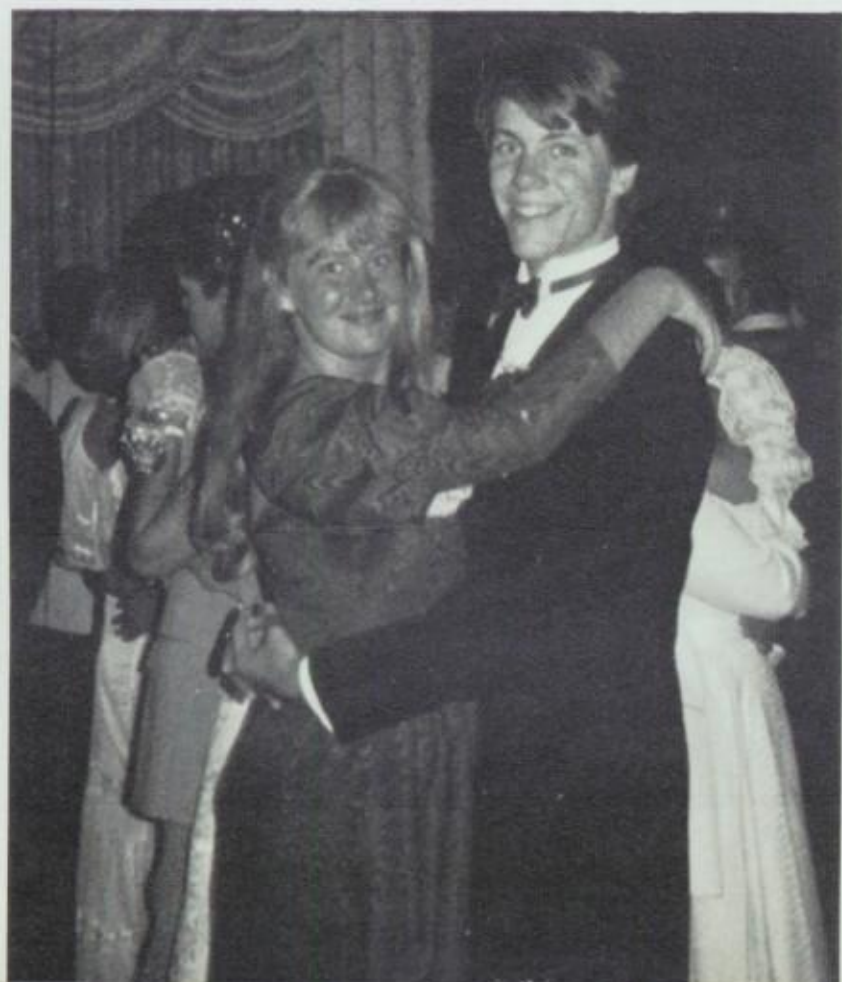

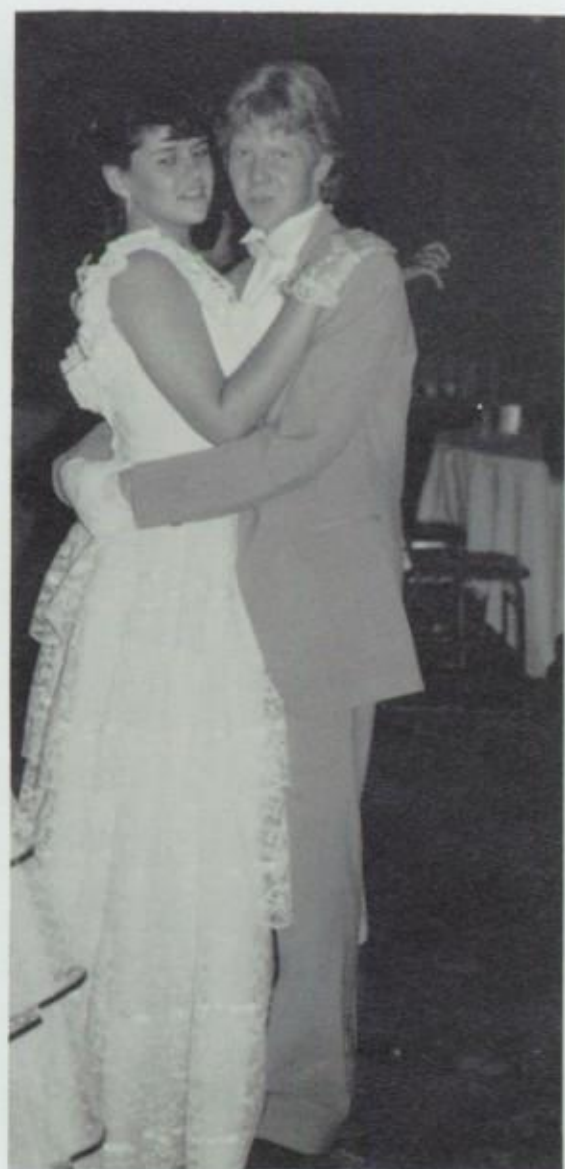

PROM

Called "one of the most successful proms I've been to" by Dr. Brandt, this year's Junior-Senior Prom was truly a "Night in Heaven." Junior officers, Karen Woods, Noelle Shaffer, Lenore Reznick, Carla Cotton, Scott Green, Kevin Donahue, Leah Thalheimer, and Chris Block, under the direction of prom co-chairman Kris Sanders and Mary Jean Robinson, put in long hours of work to make the night a special one.

Seniors and Juniors danced to the music of Class at the Holiday Inn transformed into heaven with 100 pounds of cotton batting, 120 balloons, 50 yards of ribbon, 5 pounds of glitter, and 2 nervous breakdowns. All kidding aside, Prom 1985 was a beautiful event and enjoyed by many.

GRADUATION 1985

The Gerard Class of 1985 had a spectacular graduation. As the procession began, firecrackers pierced everyone's ears. After, many speeches and awards were given at the ceremony.

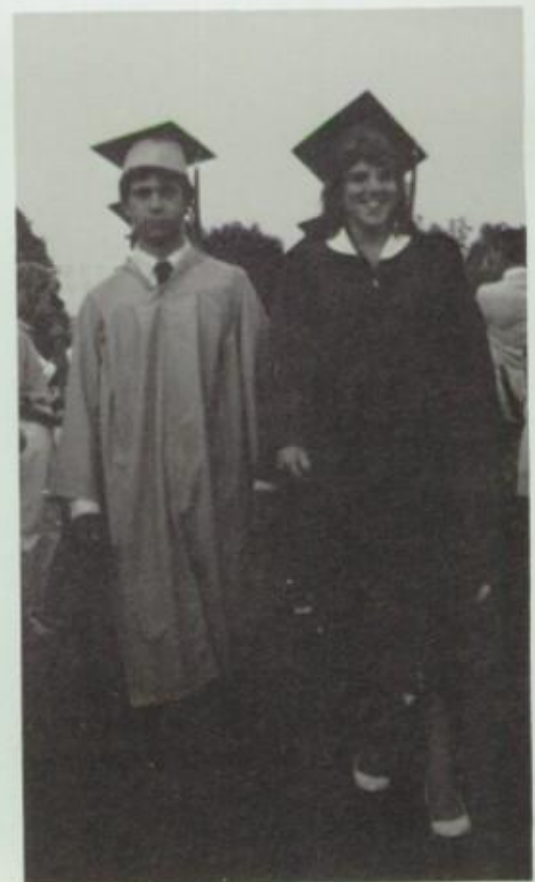

Annie Glenn, the Valedictorian, shared many of her feelings about graduation with an enormous audience. Following Annie, the Salutatorian, Suzy Gilb, gave a wonderful speech.

The Top Ten Redcoats Awards were presented by Miss Kathy Kochevar. Among the students honored were Patty DeJulia, Lura Haugen, Dominic Maietta, Natalie King, Suzy Gilb, Dave Binsfeld, Annie Glenn, Ron Ruelas, Paula Vaananen, and Rich Murphy.

A new award called the Gerardian Award was presented to Patty DeJulia for her shining example of what a true Gerardian should be.

The Most Reverend Bishop Thomas O'Brien was there to give a farewell speech to the graduates before the presentation of the diplomas by Dr. Vincent Sheridan. After the presentation, Dr. Brandt was ready to excuse everyone, but he was instead interrupted on stage. Since this is Dr. Brandt's last year at Gerard, the Senior class showed their appreciation by presenting him with a watch which was given by Dave Binsfeld. Before Dr. Brandt could thank everyone, the co-editors of the yearbook, Patty DeJulia and Laura Bolenbach, announced that this yearbook would be dedicated to the man who worked so hard to make Gerard what it is today. Since the yearbook was not finished at the time, a giant chocolate chip cookie was presented until the arrival of the yearbooks.

The trumpets blasted as the spirited class of 1985 exited from Gerard, along with the honored graduate, Dr. Brandt. This school will miss them both.

Leaves are falling all around
Time I was on my way.
Thanks to you I'm much obliged for such a pleasant stay.
And now it's time for me to go the autumn
moon lights my way.
But now I smell the rain and with it pain, and it's heading my way.
Got no time to spend and weep,
the time has come to be gone.
And tho our health we drank a thousand times
... I have to ramble on.

— Robert Plant and Jimmy Page

Bryan was a very dear friend and it hurts us all to know he's gone. I loved him but I guess you never say it till it's too late. Don't be sad. Be happy for him. Life is just a visit. Try to make your stay a pleasant one. Bryan's was. So Bryan rambled on, just as the music he loved so much said he would. I will too. Maybe today, but if I do, I know I have a friend up there who'll take me in, you too.

And so today, my world it smiles,
Your hand in mine we walk the miles.
Thanks to you it will be done,
For you to me are the only one.
Happiness, no more sad,
Happiness ... I'm glad.

Love,
Chris Winters

The Class of '85: How We See Ourselves

In this world there is war, corruption, selfishness, and deceit. But in the class of 1985, there can be found warmth, compassion, humor and integrity.

As a class, we are one, yet we are all individuals. All of us are each other's keepers; as individuals in the class, we are never completely empty or lacking. There is always someone there to pick us up and remind us that we are all unique and special.

The class that we have become is one of many variations of traits and personalities. When we find ourselves in a situation of despair, the humor that lies within our class always seems to lighten the load. The creativity that is expressed through our class can be surprising. We can accomplish a variety of things such as symbolizing our thoughts through paint on a wall and providing a liturgy that will be remembered as a strong positive contribution to our school.

It is very evident that our class has the power to strive and excel in anything we set out to accomplish in our lives. Our leadership and opinions provide a strong impression on our world which revolves around our class. It is definite that the class of 1985 of Gerard Catholic High School has the great potential to achieve any goals which we set for ourselves throughout the rest of our lives.

There are many people to whom we would like to give our thanks and deepest appreciation for their guidance and support in helping us make this yearbook be the best yearbook produced by a Gerard staff.

We feel our deepest appreciation should go to none other than Mrs. Berges who took time out of her already busy schedule to help us complete this yearbook. Upon learning that we would be without a moderator after Christmas, we realized that we desperately needed to find someone who would help us through the rest of the year. We approached Mrs. Berges with our dilemma and she, without hesitation, said she would be glad to help us. We wouldn't have been able to make it without you, Mrs. Berges, and we thank you with all our heart.

Mr. Miller can't go without thanks. He got us off to a good start this year and was always there to help us even though we knew that he wouldn't be with us throughout the year. He never complained about having to help us; he was always there with great support and guidance. Thank you, Mr. Miller.

Dr Brandt has always been willing to help out yearbook in every way possible. There were times when there almost wasn't a yearbook. Dr. Brandt knew how much it meant to the students to have a yearbook so he always worked it out so we could have one. So, with great pride we dedicate this yearbook to Dr. Brandt for his positive outlook on yearbook. Gerard will miss you a great deal, Dr. Brandt, but we hope you will be able to look back on this yearbook and on Gerard with great satisfaction and memories.

We would also like to thank all those members of the yearbook staff for their dedication and sense of responsibility to the yearbook. We received a lot of help this year and hope the support of yearbook will continue.

Of course the one person whom we all should acknowledge and thank is Our Father. Without the strength and guidance of the Lord we know we wouldn't have made it through all the difficult times during yearbook.

We hope all of you have enjoyed this yearbook and can look back on it with good memories of the past year.

Sincerely yours,

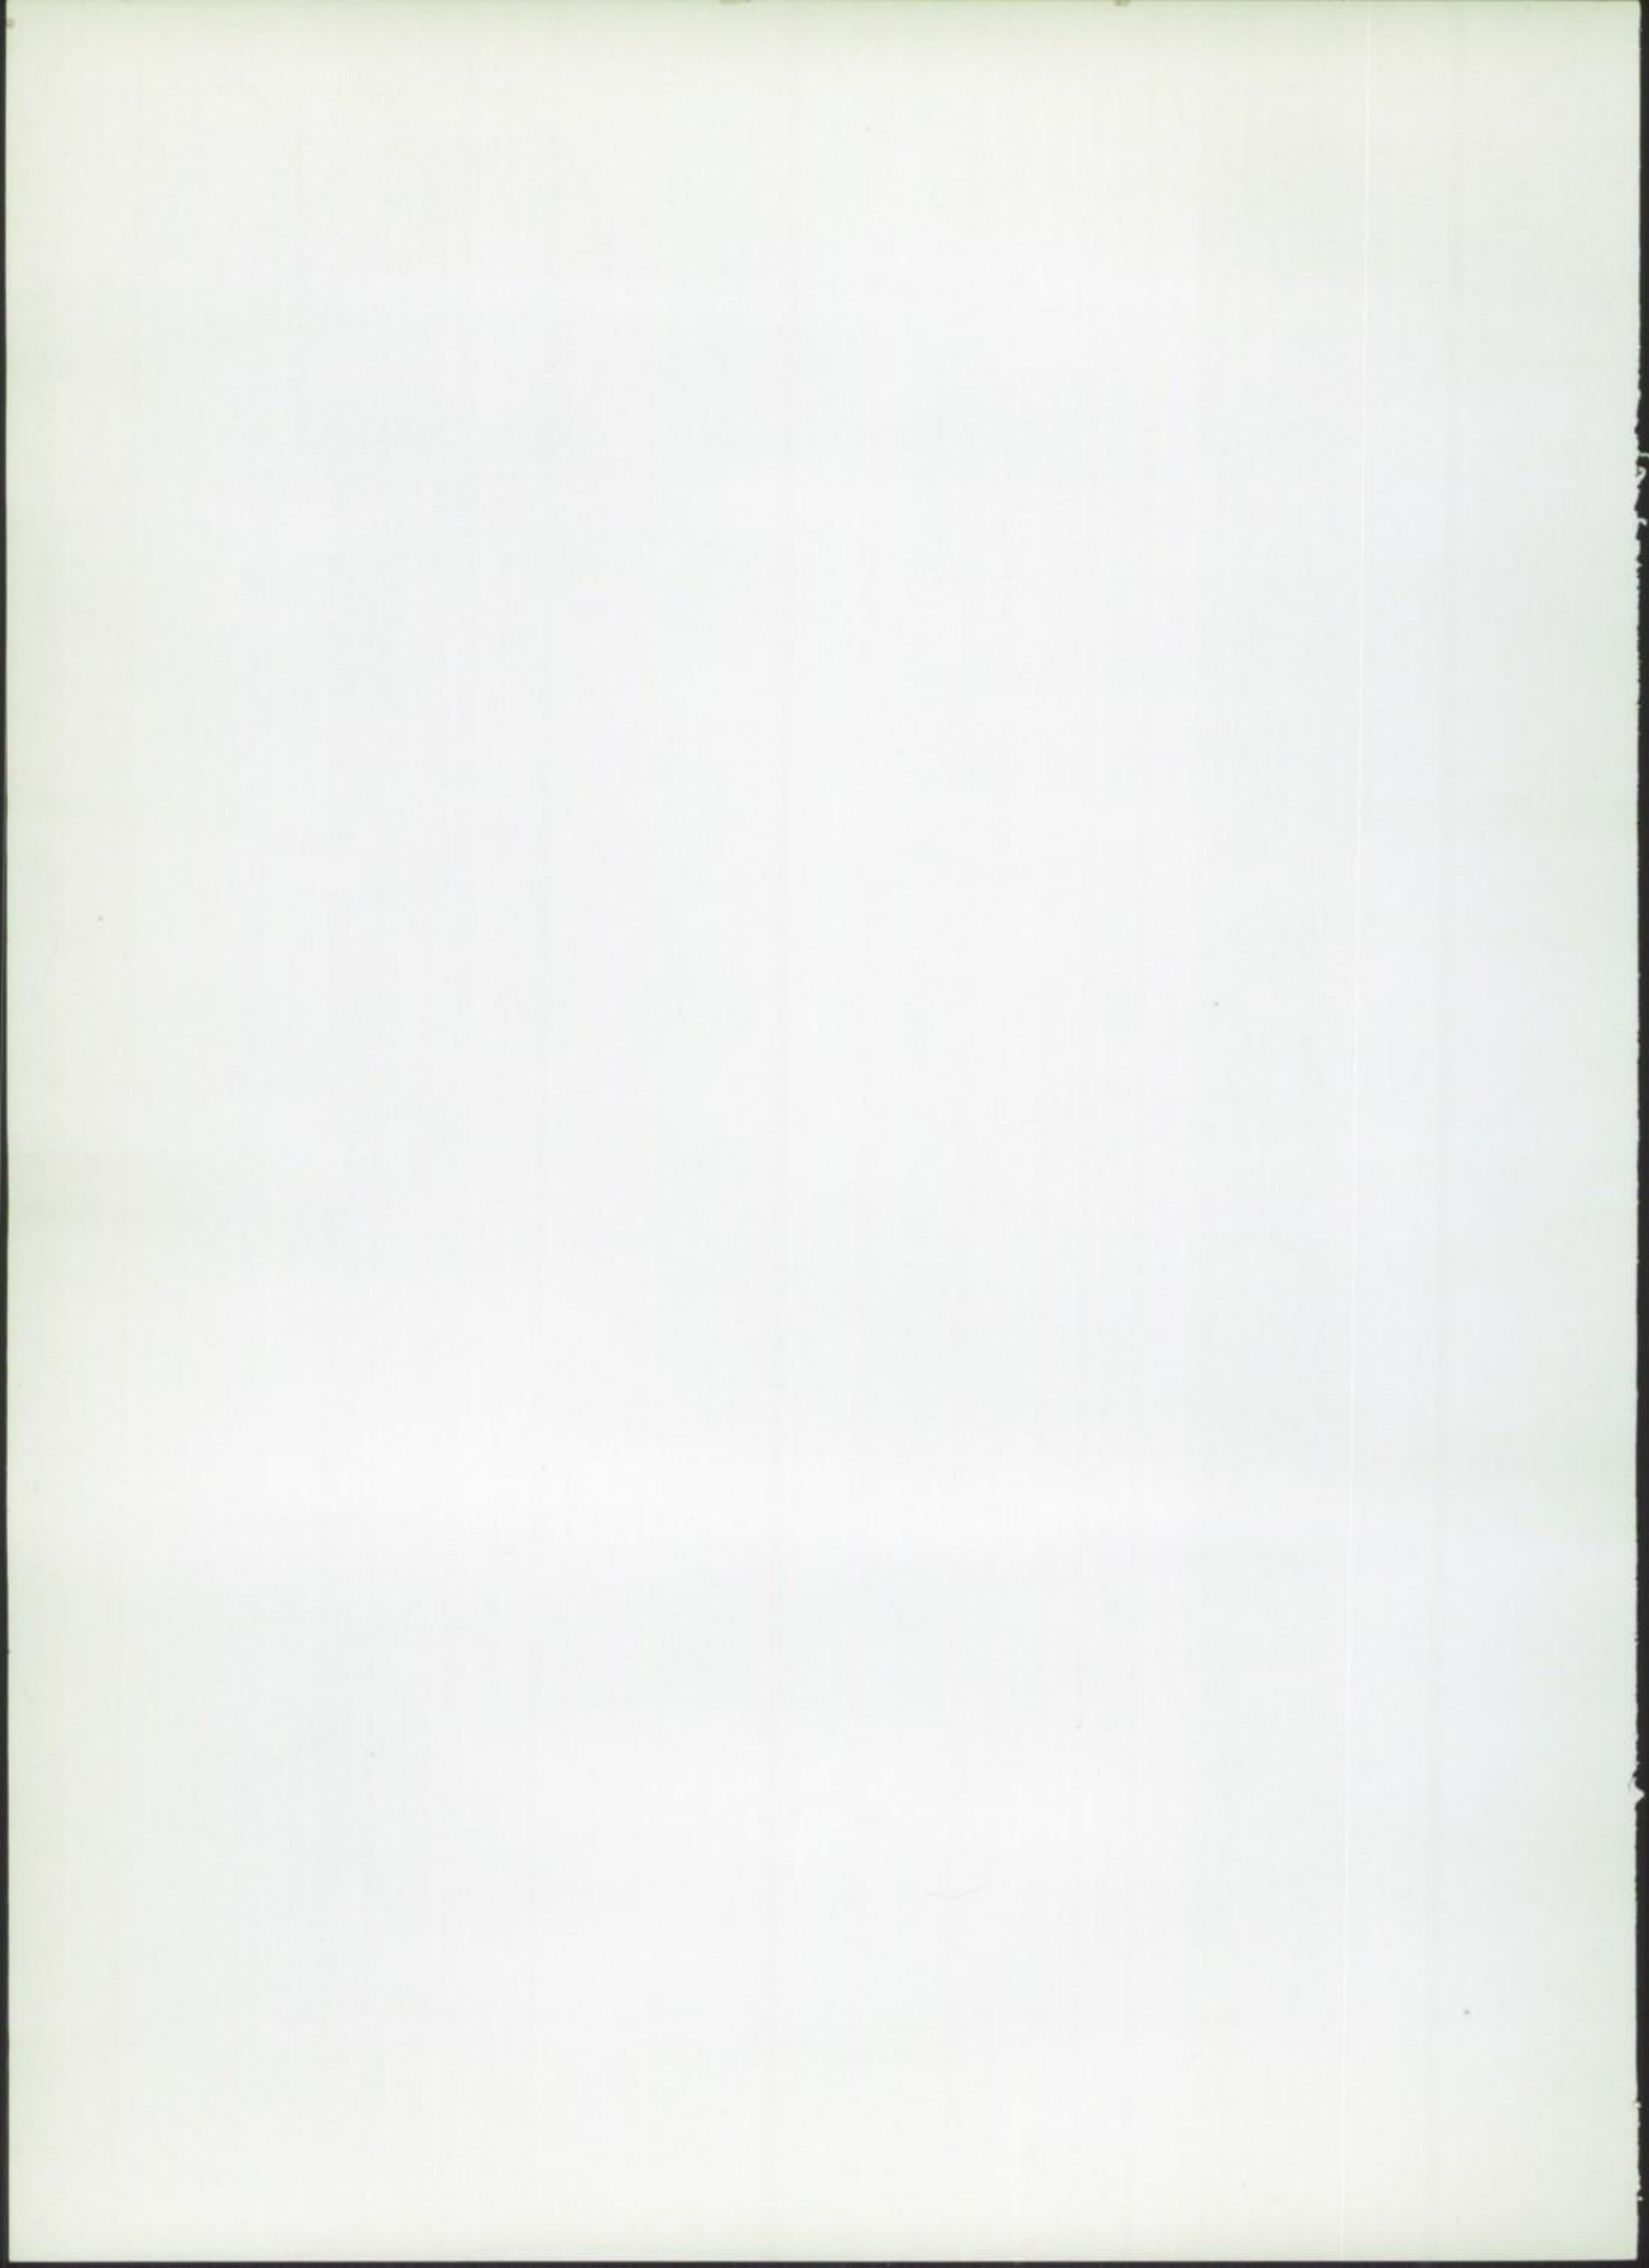

Patty DeJulia
